

View Quest launch sleek accessories for summer

Take sound and style wherever you go with the new battery pack and carry case designed for the VQ Christie radio

View Quest (VQ), the British audio brand known for its fusion of sound and style, today announces the availability of a new bundle of accessories to transform the popular Christie into the most sophisticated portable radio and speaker. Consisting of a rechargeable battery pack and carry case, users can now enjoy music/radio whilst relaxing at a champagne picnic, glamping with friends or catching the latest results during Wimbledon. The accessory bundle is available now from www.viewquest.co.uk at £29.99.

The Christie

The Christie is the newest addition to VQ's gorgeous radio line up. Christie is a DAB+ Radio and NFC/Bluetooth speaker featuring a range of unique design features. Featuring a real enamel fascia panel, a 360 degree premium leatherette wrap, the Christie also boasts a, patent pending, rotating 2.4" LCD display that enable the beautiful radio to sit either in landscape or portrait orientation. Available in 11 vibrant colours including black, blue, brown, cream, emerald, mustard, pink, purple, red, teal and radiant orchid.

The Carry Case

Available in classic cream, this carry case perfectly matches the stylish radio. Designed with the same vintage style as the Christie, the unique shoulder strap design allows the radio to be carried with ease and comfort. The radio is held securely in place within the leatherette strap with a stylish metal clasp.

The Battery pack

The Christie rechargeable battery pack delivers runtimes of 16hrs with an extended 36hrs runtime on standby mode so there is never a moment without music.
