The Brits are Back

Multi-award winning British audio brand VQ
Launch their unique radio range in Australia ready for Christmas

November 29th 2016 – With Brexit negotiations set to start in 2017, Australia should be bracing itself for an influx of all things Pom, but it's not just; fancy accents, Yorkshire puddings and an astonishing inability to apply sunscreen you should be expecting. British audio brand VQ are paving the way for a sound and style revolution by launching their irresistible range of vintage inspired Digital Radios, in time for Christmas.

The three key models in the VQ range are available in a charming selection of 11 different leatherette hues, all offering DAB+ & FM Radio coupled with Bluetooth streaming for complete content flexibility at prices starting from just $129.99.

If the gift of music wasn't enough this Christmas, VQ true to their Sound and Style ethos are working in partnership with TONI&GUY to offer a luxury hair and beauty gift package worth over $100 with the purchase of any Retro Mini from MyVQ.com.au or national retailers in December. This offer is outstanding value when you consider the Retro Mini digital radio is priced at just $129, putting VQ a cut above the rest.

It is certainly not a case of style over substance as the VQ range is already multi-award winning in the UK with a reputation for premium audio quality. Other features for the tech-savvy include dual alarm clock functionality, a range of equaliser settings and USB charging for your phone/tablet.

This Christmas a radio from VQ could be your answer to the perennial question of what to get the person who has everything or simply how you drown out grandad's snoring after dinner. In the case of Retro Mini you even have the opportunity to create a new you in the New Year thanks to TONI&GUY.

About VQ

VQ is an independently owned British audio brand, born out of a desire to create products that perfectly combine Sound & Style. The multi-award winning product range is all designed and engineered at their UK headquarters.

Colour is an essential part of the VQ identity, for far too long black and silver have been the de facto choice for consumer electronics – but VQ see their radios as an essential part of interior décor. A feast of the eyes as well as the ears.
