SESSION 5 Digital radio in the car - around Europe

14:30 – 15:30 Digital radio is at a different stage of development in each market in Europe. The car industry, however, requires one solution and one point of contact, as opposed to multiple broadcasters. Countries rolling out DAB+ have formed a national body to co-ordinate messaging to car manufacturers and consumers. This session gives an update from each country on initiatives to market digital radio to the driver, signal coverage, and collaboration with the automotive industry.
