

Frontier Silicon powers the best DAB radios

London, 17 July 2013

What HiFi has just published its 2013 list of the best DAB digital radios to buy this summer and nine of the 11 models recommended contain Frontier Silicon solutions. What HiFi's recommendations cover all types of DAB radio from basic portable radios to in-car and HiFi systems. To read the full article click here.

The list includes models from top brands like Pure, Roberts, Revo and Ruark based on the latest Frontier Silicon solutions. These are compatible with FM, DAB and DAB+ and ready for whatever the government's digital switchover announcement holds. The move to digital radio appears to be gathering momentum with UK Communications Minister Ed Vaizey confirming the completion of the Digital Radio Action Plan and Frontier Silicon's advance bookings in June showing a healthy upward trend

It seems that the older and wiser generations are taking the lead in embracing the change to digital; Mick Jagger, as reported by the Sunday Times, asked for a DAB radio so that the rock legend could relax and listen to the cricket before the Rolling Stones' performance at Glastonbury.

About Frontier Silicon Limited - a Toumaz Group company
