WorldDAB announces session line-up for the European Radio Show 2017

5 January 2017, London, UK: WorldDAB has announced a panel of international speakers for the Digital Radio session at the European Radio Show, taking place from 29-31 January in Paris.

Titled “A vision for the future of radio: DAB+ in Europe”, the session takes place on Monday 31st from 11:00-13:00 and features broadcasters, regulators and digital radio experts from across Europe.

Speakers include:

France: J-E Valli, Président, Les Indés Radios, Jean-Marc Dubreuil, WorldDAB (France)
UK: Jimmy Buckland from Wireless Group and Jonathan Arendt from Jazz FM
Norway: Jørn Jensen from NRK
Switzerland: Marcel Regnotto, Ofcom
Germany: Carsten Zorger, Digitalradio Büro Deutschland
Netherlands: Jacqueline Bierhorst from Digital Radio Netherlands

With Norway set to make radio history with the world’s first digital switchover, DAB continues to go from strength to strength across Europe. Spectrum has been allocated for DAB+ in Ukraine, and services have recently started in Latvia and Slovenia.

With increasing political momentum in Germany, expanded DAB+ coverage in The Netherlands and new cities launching in France this year, 2017 is set to be a big year for DAB.

Visit the WorldDAB booth at the European Radio Show exhibition for advice and information on DAB+ and find more information or to register for the European Radio Show at <http://www.europeanradioshow.com/>
